Dear Unit-holder,

We are pleased to present you the following annual report for the ERSTE STOCK GLOBAL jointly owned fund pursuant to the InvFG for the accounting year from 1 July 2020 to 30 June 2021.

Even as the COVID-19 pandemic spreads, we are not losing sight of our responsibility to manage the assets entrusted to our care in a manner that maintains our ability to act on the capital markets and that enables us to make the best possible allocation decisions.

Modern technology also allows us to meet these obligations in full via teleworking.

Development of the Fund

Market environment

The international equity markets turned in very pleasing performance over the reporting period. The MSCI All Country World rose by around 37.2% in USD and around 30.2% in EUR. The earnings including dividends came to roughly 32.7% in EUR. In regional terms, the US market was at the top of the winner's list. The S&P 500 rose by around 38.6% in USD. The emerging markets (plus 38.1% in USD), Japan (Nikkei plus 29.2% in JPY), and Europe (MSCI Europe plus 25.1% in EUR) also posted healthy gains. Performance at the sector level shows that cyclical names (materials, financials, consumer discretionary) generated substantially higher returns than defensive companies (utilities, consumer staples, health care).

The impressive recovery on the equity markets since the low on 23 March 2020 continued through to the end of the accounting year. Correction phases like in September and October 2020 or February 2021 were short-lived and did not disrupt the uptrend on the global equity market to any substantial degree. The governments and central banks announced substantial support measures during the pandemic. The economic and monetary policy stimulus in the USA alone amounted to more than USD 10 trillion in 2020 and 2021.

Extremely loose financial conditions, the growing global COVID-19 vaccination campaign, and a much more rapid recovery in corporate earnings than expected led to the significant price increases on the equity markets during the accounting year. The earnings estimates for 2021 were steadily revised upwards and came to around plus 37.7% for the developed equity markets and around plus 50% for the emerging markets at the end of the reporting period.

Starting in the fourth quarter of 2020, especially those market segments that profit from the normalisation of economic activity and rising inflation expectations saw value increases, including cyclical shares, value shares, and financials. By contrast, the winners of the lockdown and growth shares have generally lagged behind in performance somewhat since the fourth quarter.

Inflation expectations have risen substantially in the USA since the second quarter of 2020. Market participants became very aware of the inflation issue and thus the end of the extremely loose monetary policy in the USA when surprisingly high US inflation figures were released in April (4.2%) and May (5.0%). The first step towards the normalisation of US monetary policy will be the tapering of bond purchases by the Federal Reserve.

Investment policy

The strategic focus was placed on investment in growth and quality shares during the reporting period. The sectors of technology, health care, and financials were assigned the highest weightings in the fund on average during the year while energy and utilities only made up a minor share.

The fund's strategic positioning was maintained with its focus on companies with relatively stable earnings development compared with the overall market, as this is indicative of the quality of a company. Regardless of the sector positioning, this leads to a generally defensive orientation for the fund.

Considering the progress made in the development of a COVID-19 vaccine and attractive valuations, new cyclical names were added to the fund on a selective basis in the third and fourth quarters of 2020 (including banks and consumer discretionary) while defensive names (including consumer staples) were reduced. The US technology sector still makes up a large portion of the portfolio. The high quality of the companies and dynamic growth prospects are good reasons for a higher level of investment in this segment. Various structural trends such as cloud computing, online retailing, and electrification should continue to facilitate the growth of companies doing business in these fields.

In regional terms, the fund management preferred North American shares, especially US companies. The weighting of US shares was increased somewhat over the course of the accounting year while European names were reduced to a certain degree.

Index futures were also used for short-term investment level management during the reporting period, including positions in Euro Stoxx 50 futures and S&P 500 futures.

There were a few large-scale redemptions of unit certificates and inflows in the fund during the period. Cash for the redemptions was obtained either by using the cash holdings in the fund, by selling off existing equity positions, or by rebalancing some positions. Significant inflows were used to increase existing positions and in some cases to add new names to the fund.

The investment process incorporates the consideration of environmental, social, and corporate governance factors.

The fund achieved a performance of plus 31.05% (ISIN AT0000989645) for the reporting period.

General information about performance:

The performance of unit categories with no outstanding units at the end of the reporting period or no outstanding units during the reporting period is generally based on the dividend-adjusted performance of the overall fund. In these cases, the performance is not reported below.

When a unit category is issued during the reporting period, the performance and reinvestment are calculated from the point in time that the unit category is launched. Because of this and possible other fees and currency classes, the performance and reinvestment of this unit category differ from those of comparable unit categories.

The performance is determined assuming the reinvestment of all paid dividends and amounts at their nominal value on the day of disbursement.

1. Value Development over the Accounting Year (Fund Performance)

Calculation according to the OeKB method per unit in the unit currency not accounting for a front-end surcharge

The performance of unit categories with no outstanding units at the end of the reporting period or no outstanding units during the reporting period is generally based on the dividend-adjusted performance of the overall fund. In these cases, the "performance", the "net earnings per unit", and the "total value including (notional) units gained through disbursement/payment" are not reported in the following.

When a unit category is issued during the reporting period, the performance is calculated from the point in time that the unit category is launched. Because of this and possible other fees and currency classes, the performance of this unit category differs from that of comparable unit categories.

Principles governing performance-based remuneration components

The Management Company has adopted remuneration principles to prevent possible conflicts of interest and to ensure compliance with the standard rules of conduct when awarding remuneration to relevant persons.

Fixed salary components make up a large enough share of the total remuneration of all employees of the Management Company that a variable remuneration policy can be applied on an individualised basis.

The total remuneration (fixed and variable components) is governed by the principle of balance and is linked to sustainability so that the acceptance of excessive risks is not rewarded. Therefore, the variable remuneration forms no more than a balanced portion of the total remuneration awarded to an employee.

The performance-based remuneration components serve the short-term and long-term interests of the Management Company and contribute to preventing risky behaviour. The performance-based remuneration components take into account individual performance as well as the profitability of the Management Company.

The size of the bonus pool is calculated based on the bonus potential that can be applied to the different employee categories. Bonus potential is a percentage of the fixed annual gross remuneration. The bonus potential can be no more than 100% of the fixed annual gross remuneration. The bonus pool is adjusted depending on the success of the Management Company. The personal bonus is linked to individual performance. The total of personal bonuses is limited by the size of the bonus pool after deduction of penalties.

The performance-based payments are capped at 100% of the annual gross remuneration for all employees, including the material risk bearers (according to the definition in the remuneration policy) and managing directors of the Management Company.

The remuneration system is made up of three components:

- 1) Fixed remuneration
- 2) Variable remuneration
- 3) Fringe benefits

The bonus potential is based on the fixed annual gross remuneration. The target agreements concluded with the employees contain qualitative and/or quantitative objectives. The payment of performance-based remuneration components is subject to a minimum profitability level for the Management Company and to performance targets.

Sixty per cent of the performance-based remuneration components are paid immediately; for employees who are involved directly in fund and portfolio management, 50% of this is paid immediately in cash and 50% is paid one year later in the form of non-cash instruments. The remaining 40% of the performance-based remuneration components are retained and paid out over a period of three years, with 50% of this also being paid in cash and 50% in the form of non-cash instruments for employees who are involved directly in fund and portfolio management. The non-cash instruments can consist of units in an investment fund that is administered by the Management Company, equivalent holdings or instruments linked to units, or equivalent non-cash instruments. Based on the principle of proportionality, the Management Company has set a materiality threshold below which there is no incentive to enter into inappropriate risks, for which reason there is no need to make delayed payment or payment in the form of a non-cash instrument. Other non-cash benefits are fringe benefits that are not associated with performance but with a specific position (e.g. company car) or that apply for all employees (e.g. holiday).

The Supervisory Board of the Management Company has set up a Remuneration Committee to ensure that the remuneration policy and its application are independently assessed. This committee consists of the following persons: Rudolf Sagmeister, Harald Gasser (remuneration expert), and Heinrich Hubert Reiner.

The complete remuneration policy of the Management Company can be viewed at http://www.erste-am.at/de/private\_anleger/wer-sind-wir/investmentprozess.

The last audit of compliance with the requirements of the remuneration policy by the Supervisory Board on 27 March 2020 revealed no deviations. There were also no material findings during the last audit by the Internal Auditing department.

No material changes were made to the remuneration policy during the past accounting year.

Audit Report*

Statement on the annual report

Audit opinion

We have audited the annual report prepared by Erste Asset Management GmbH, Vienna, for the fund under its management

ERSTE STOCK GLOBAL

consisting of the statement of assets and liabilities as of 30 June 2021, the income statement for the accounting year ending on this date, and the other information specified in Annex I Schedule B of the Austrian Investment Fund Act 2011 (InvFG 2011).

Based on the findings of our audit, we believe that the annual report satisfies the legal requirements and provides a true and fair view of the assets and financial position as of 30 June 2021 and of the earnings position of the fund for the accounting year ending on this date in accordance with Austrian commercial law and the provisions of the InvFG 2011.

Basis for the audit opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with § 49 (5) InvFG 2011 and in accordance with the Austrian principles of good auditing. These principles require the application of the International Standards on Auditing (ISA). Our responsibilities under these regulations and standards are described in the section “Responsibilities of the auditor in auditing the annual report” of our audit report. We are independent from the company as specified by the Austrian commercial and industry regulations and fulfilled our other professional obligations in accordance with these requirements. We feel that the audit evidence that we obtained up to the date of the audit certificate is sufficient and suitable to serve as a basis for our audit opinion as of that date.

Other information

The legal representatives are responsible for the other information. The other information includes all information in the annual report except for the statement of assets and liabilities, the income statement, the other information specified in Annex I Schedule B of the InvFG 2011, and the audit report.

Our audit opinion does not cover this other information, and we provide no assurance whatsoever for this other information.

In the context of our review of the annual report, we are responsible for reading this other information and assessing whether the other information contains material inconsistencies with the annual report or with the information gathered by us during our audit, or appears to contain other manners of material misstatements.

Should we come to the conclusion on the basis of the work completed with the other information received before the date of the audit report that this other information contains a material misstatement, we are required to report about this fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Management and supervisory board responsibilities relating to the annual report

The legal representatives are responsible for preparing the annual report and for ensuring that this report provides a true and fair view of the assets and financial and earnings position of the fund in accordance with Austrian commercial law and the provisions of the InvFG 2011. The legal representatives are also responsible for implementing the internal controls that they deem necessary to facilitate the preparation of an annual report that is free from material misstatements due to error or fraud.

The supervisory board is responsible for monitoring the accounting process of the company as it applies to the fund under its management.

Responsibilities of the auditor in auditing the annual report

Our goals are to ascertain with sufficient certainty whether the annual report contains material misstatements due to error or fraud and to issue an audit certificate that includes our audit opinion. Sufficient certainty is a high degree of certainty but no guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Austrian standards on good auditing, which require the application of the ISA, will always discover material misstatements that may be present. Misstatements can result from fraud or errors and are considered to be material when it can be reasonably expected that individual misstatements or a combination of misstatements can influence economic decisions made by readers on the basis of this annual report.

As part of an audit conducted in accordance with the Austrian standards on good auditing, which require the application of the ISA, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism during the entire audit process.

In addition:

- We identify and assess the risks of material misstatements in the annual report due to error or fraud, plan audit steps in response to these risks, perform the planned audit steps, and collect audit evidence that is sufficient and suitable to form a basis for our audit opinion. The risk that a material misstatement resulting from fraud will remain undiscovered is greater than for misstatements resulting from error because fraudulent activity can include collusion, the falsification of documents, intentional incomplete or misleading representations, and the circumvention of internal controls.
- We familiarise ourselves with the internal control systems that are relevant for the audit to plan audit steps that are appropriate under the specific circumstances, but not so as to state an opinion on the effectiveness of the company's internal control system.

- We assess the appropriateness of the accounting methods applied by the legal representatives and the reasonableness of the estimates made by the legal representatives in the accounts and of the associated information.
- We assess the overall presentation, the structure, and the content of the annual report including the figures as well as whether the annual report depicts the underlying transactions and events in a manner that provides a true and fair view.
- We discuss the planned scope and scheduling of the audit and any material audit findings, including material defects that we discover in the internal control system during our audit, with the supervisory board, among other issues.
